

Adolescents:

Let's talk about:

- parties
- eating out
- kissing
- travelling
- EpiPen® / AnaPen®
- ASCIA Action Plans

Who can call?

- School Principals and staff
- Children's Services Directors & staff
- Parents
- Adolescents
- Training providers
- OH&S staff

Feedback email
anaphylaxisadvice@rch.org.au

Allergy & Immunology Department

Anaphylaxis Advice Line

T: (03) 9345 4235 or

1300 725 911

E: anaphylaxisadvice@rch.org.au

www.rch.org.au/allergy/

The Royal Children's Hospital Melbourne
50 Flemington Road Parkville
Victoria 3052 Australia
www.rch.org.au

Anaphylaxis Advice Line

For

Victorian Schools
Children's Services
Families
Adolescents

P: 9345 4235

E: anaphylaxisadvice@rch.org.au

How can we help you?

Schools:

Anaphylaxis management is mandated for All Victorian schools under Ministerial Order 706 and associated guidelines

- Anaphylaxis Policy
- Individual anaphylaxis management plan (IAMP)
- Training
- Excursions & Camps
- Communication

Parents/carers can help:

- Communication
- Individual Risk Management Plans
- Providing safe treat box

Children's Services:

Most Children's Services are regulated nationally
We can assist you with getting ready to start child care with advice on:

- Action plans
- Medication kit
- Risk management
- Meal times
- Special occasions
- Training

Families:

General information for families regarding:

- Anaphylaxis Education
- Family outings
- Child care/kindergarten and transition to primary school
- Primary School and transition to secondary school
- Secondary School