

PROGRAM

Clinical Symposium - Monday 14th November 2005 "Biological Contributions to Child Psychiatry"

Morning Session	Venue: Public Lecture Theatre, Old Arts Building, University Of Melbourne
8:30 - 9:00 am	Registration (Rooms 239A & 239B, Old Arts Building)
9:00 - 10:30	Keynote Address: Professor Eric Taylor (King's College, London) "The neurobiology of ADHD: what have we learnt?"
10:30 - 11:00	Morning Tea (Rooms 239A & 239B, Old Arts Building)
11:00 - 12:30	Discussion Forum: A/Professor Alasdair Vance (chair) (University of Melbourne) "ADHD: how do we get the right balance between medication and psychosocial treatment?"
12:30 - 1:30 pm	Lunch (Rooms 239A & 239B, Old Arts Building)
Afternoon Session	Venue: Public Lecture Theatre, Old Arts Building, University Of Melbourne
1:30 - 2:30	Professor Eric Taylor (King's College, London) "Assessment of comorbid ADHD"
2:30 - 3:30	Dr Daryl Efron (Royal Children's Hospital) "Complex psychopharmacology"
3:30 - 4:-00	Afternoon Tea (Rooms 239A & 239B, Old Arts Building)
4:00 - 5:00	Dr Nicole Milburn (Take Two)/Mindful "Complex psychosocial treatments"