Eating Disorders Resource for Health Professionals

A manual to promote early identification, assessment and treatment of eating disorders (2004)

Victorian Centre of Excellence in Eating Disorders

This manual was developed as a project of CEED. It provides a comprehensive introduction to eating disorders. It was designed for those health professionals wanting to know more about the early identification, assessment and treatment of eating disorders. CEED is pleased to be able make the manual available to health professionals on a cost recovery basis.
