

ROYAL CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Department of Allergy and Immunology

POSITION TITLE: Allergy Immunology Registrar

DEPARTMENT: Allergy and Immunology

ROSTERED HOURS OF WORK: 43 hours, Monday - Friday

REPORTS TO: Assoc Prof Mimi Tang

SUPERVISOR (Person responsible for feedback / training): As above

APPLICATION CLOSING DATE: Friday 14 August 2009

Department's purpose or mission statement:

To develop, train and enthuse the next generation of Pediatric Immunologists/Allergists

Individual training or development objectives:

Please refer to current Mango handbook for advanced training in Immunology/Allergy

Qualifications required: MBBS, Physicians Exam Part I

Experience required: Completion of Basic Training in Paediatrics or equivalent

Position Description:

1. Attend Outpatient Clinics (two clinics per week).
 - a. Undertake clinical assessment, investigation and management of patients referred to Allergy Immunology
 - b. Perform and interpret skin prick tests under supervision of Consultant Allergist/Immunologist.
2. Attend Allergy and Immunology Challenge Clinics (three times per week)
 - a. Oversee food and drug challenges on Allergy Immunology patients admitted to the Department under the supervision of Consultant Allergist/Immunologist.
3. Triage referrals to the Department of Allergy and Immunology Outpatient clinics.
4. Educational activities
 - a. Attend the weekly Allergy Immunology Case Presentation meeting, and present cases to Consultants for discussion
 - b. Attend the weekly Allergy Immunology Seminar Series and present as required.
 - c. Attend the weekly Immunology Laboratory reporting meetings to discuss results of immune function testing.
 - d. Gain an understanding of immunological tests performed in the Immunology laboratory, including indications for testing and interpretation of results
5. Perform a research project under the supervision of the Department Head of Clinical Allergy and Immunology, where required.

Work together with the Allergy Immunology Fellow to cover the following:

1. Perform ward consultations on inpatients referred to the Department of Allergy and Immunology and present to Consultant Clinical Allergist/Immunologist for discussion.
2. Day-to-day care of inpatients admitted under the Department of Allergy and Immunology, working with resident staff in Medical Unit D.
3. Attend Intravenous Immunoglobulin (IVIG) Infusion Clinics at Ambulatory Care Centre to review patients receiving intravenous immunoglobulin.
4. Attend Multidisciplinary Clinics as required including:
 - a. Severe eczema clinic – Dermatology Ground Floor Red Desk every 2 months (rotate with Allergy Immunology Fellow)
 - b. Bone marrow transplant meeting – Oncology 6th Floor (as required)