

Your Key Worker...

- is the main contact person for you and your family.

- shares information and advice that supports the development of your child.

- works alongside you to support your child in their everyday life.

- helps coordinate supports and services.

- works as part of a team to support your child.

What is a Key Worker in Early Childhood Intervention (ECI)?

A Key Worker in ECI is your main point of contact. The Key Worker supports families and their children with disabilities or developmental delays.

Your Key Worker can be a:

- teacher
- speech pathologist
- occupational therapist
- psychologist
- physiotherapist
- social worker
- other

