

Asylum seeker identification – 2018

 Evidence of Immigration Status Australian Government ImmiCard Surname: CITIZEN Given Names: JOHN Date of Birth: 01 OCT 80 Sex: M ImmiCard No: EIS014187 Card Expires: 15 FEB 18 EIS014187 ImmiCard	Evidence of immigration status card Issued to people on Bridging Visa E (BVE-subclass 050 or 051) granted to asylum seekers who arrived without a valid visa, and to individuals who arrived on a valid visa and lodged a protection claim. May be issued to people in the review process. Also issued to refugees - TPV-785, THC-786, SHEV-790, and 866 Permanent Protection Visas, although these people will have Medicare, and be eligible for healthcare cards by the usual criteria.
 Status Resolution Support Services payment Customer name: _____ Customer reference number: [] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] Customer speaks: _____ DHS LSU code: [] []	SRSS payment card Individuals on Status Resolution Support Services (SRSS) payments may have an SRSS payment card. From late 2017, the number of people on SRSS has been reducing.
No image available	Protection visa application letter People who arrive by plane and seek asylum will receive an acknowledgement letter when they submit a protection claim - this is proof that they have engaged in a refugee determination process. They may remain on their entry (substantive) visa, or have a BVE.
No image available	Judicial review - re-application for BVE letter Individuals seeking judicial review of a negative protection decision can reapply for a bridging visa. When they lodge for review, they will receive an acknowledgement letter that they have reapplied for a BVE, which can be used as proof they are engaging in review of their refugee determination process.
 International Health and Medical Services HEALTH CARD Name: DIAC, Patient Patient ID#: 1-2NIEAK DOB: 1/1/2000 For use by the nominated person only	IHMS card Individuals in community detention will have an International Health and Services (IHMS) card to facilitate payment at their assigned general practice and pharmacy.
No image available	Other documents recording asylum seeker status Individuals may also have a letter from a support provider such as Red Cross, AMES, Life Without Barriers; the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre; other health providers; charities or lawyers - this may also provide evidence of asylum status. Public Transport Victoria cards record asylum seeker status.

Interim Medicare card Non-citizen/permanent resident Medicare cards are a blue colour. These Medicare cards are used for people seeking asylum (tied to having a valid bridging visa thus may have expired). Other groups of temporary migrants may also have these cards (e.g. people from New Zealand without permanent residence).