

The Melbourne Assessment 2

Terms and Conditions of Use

The Royal Children's Hospital Melbourne (ABN 35 655 720 546) (RCH) has developed the Melbourne Assessment 2 (MA2) for use by qualified clinical and research staff in measuring the quality of unilateral upper limb movement in children with neurological conditions (Permitted Purpose). These are the terms and conditions of use of the MA2. By ordering and using the MA2, you acknowledge, accept and agree to be bound by these terms and conditions at all times.

Provided that you comply with these terms and conditions, the RCH grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable, revocable, single site licence to use the MA2 and its component parts for the Permitted Purpose. Other than as set out in the instructions for use, you may not reproduce, amend, alter, enhance, redistribute or incorporate any component of the MA2 into any other work without the prior written consent of the RCH.

1. To order and use the MA2 you must have specific training and experience in occupational therapy, physiotherapy, medicine or research and you must hold a relevant professional qualification. By ordering and using the MA2 you warrant that you hold the qualification you have indicated on your order form. You also warrant that you will complete the online training before using the MA2 in a clinical or research setting.
2. The MA2 should be used by professionals only. The MA2 should not be used by consumers or patients. In particular, it should not be used by consumers to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease or for any other therapeutic purpose. The MA2 does not replace medical advice. If you have any patient concerns, please consult a medical practitioner.
3. The RCH does not accept any liability for any injury, loss or damage incurred by any person in any way relating to your use of the MA2 or reliance on the results of any such use of the MA2. You agree to indemnify the RCH and keep it indemnified from and against any and all actions, claims, demands, costs, losses and expenses of any nature incurred by the RCH in any way relating to your use of the MA2.
4. The MA2 was developed in Australia using an Australian patient population. The RCH makes no representation that it is appropriate for use in any other country or on any other patient population. If you decide to use the MA2 in a location other than Australia, you do so on your own initiative and you are responsible for ensuring that its use in that location is appropriate and complies with all applicable local laws and other standards.
5. The MA2, its component parts and the content of this website relating to the MA2 are provided to you on an 'as is' 'as available' basis without warranty of any kind either express or implied, including but not limited to any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness or appropriateness for the Permitted Purpose or for any other purpose, accuracy, non-infringement and compliance with any laws, standards, regulations professional requirements or other obligations.
6. Any publications or other public events or activities which refer to or otherwise involve the use of the MA2 in any way must acknowledge the RCH and the other authors of the MA2.
7. The RCH has a right but not a duty to update this website and/or the MA2 or its instructions for use and to do further research in relation to the use of MA2 for the Permitted Purpose or any other purpose and/or to publish the results of any such further research.

8. This website may contain links to websites operated by other parties or to another party's publication. Inclusion of such information on this website does not imply any endorsement of the material contained in any such site or publication and the RCH disclaims any liability with regard to the content of any such third party sites or publications.
9. The RCH reserves the right to revoke the licence to use the MA2 at its sole discretion, for any reason at any time, including where it suspects that you have breached these terms and conditions or any other rights held by the RCH. The revocation of the licence shall result in loss of access to portions of the website. You agree that the RCH shall have the right to take appropriate administrative and/or legal action to protect its rights.
10. The RCH complies with relevant privacy laws in the collection, use, disclosure and storage of your personal information. We may collect and use your personal information for the purposes of providing you with access to the MA2. Personal information may be reasonably provided to RCH employees and third party providers. We will use your personal information to provide you with information relating to the MA2 or any other related tools unless you indicate below that you do not wish for this to happen.
11. These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of Victoria, Australia. By ordering and using the MA2, you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that state to resolve any disputes under these terms and conditions or in any way relating to the MA2.

I acknowledge, accept and agree to abide by these terms and conditions at all times in my use of MA2.
